In the Hour of our Diſtreſs our Affliction knew no Bounds when we reflected upon the many great and ineſtimable Bleſſings which we have enjoyed under your Majeſty's Government; our Liberties, Civil and Religious, preſerved to us inviolate; the Laws duly and regularly adminiſtered; and all

ſuch

ſuch Plans of ſound Policy invariably purſued, as have no other Object than the Public Good. Influenced by theſe Maxims of Government, your Majeſty enjoys that moſt glorious and that moſt enviable of all Diſtinctions, the Happineſs of ruling in the Affections of a great becauſe of an united People.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Citizens of your City of Rocheſter, approach with heartfelt Joy to congratulate your Majeſty's auſpicious Reſtoration to Health, and to the perſonal Exerciſe of the Government of your Kingdoms; aſſuring your Majeſty, that none of your Subjects more truly feel the Happineſs of that Event, ſo univerſally and ardently deſired, than the Citizens of this ancient and loyal City.

We truſt, it has pleaſed Providence to permit our late Calamity for Purpoſes of Good to this Country; to demonſtrate to us more ſtrongly the Excellence of our Conſtitution, from the Diſtreſs and Embarraſſment which threatened to follow a Suſpenſion of the executive Government in thoſe Hands where only it is rightly placed; and to manifeſt more clearly to your Majeſty the affectionate Loyalty of every Claſs of your Subjects: They have lamented it, Sire, not only as a Public Misfortune, but as a Domeſtic Grief, which came Home to the Boſom of every Man; and as their Anxiety was extreme, their Joy is uncommon and univerſal.

If our Prayers and Wiſhes are heard, your Majeſty will long continue to rule over a loyal, loving and beloved People; to ſet the faireſt Example of publick and private Virtues; and to govern us with the ſame Wiſdom, Mildneſs and Regard for our true Intereſts, which we have ſo long happily experienced. It will be our Duty to prove ourſelves not unworthy of your Majeſty's paternal Care, by a ready Support of legal Authority; by a conſcientious Obedience to the Laws; and by endeavouring, as far as we are impowered, by a due Execution of them, to promote Virtue and Religion, the only ſure Foundations of publick Order and Tranquility.

It is our moſt earneſt Wiſh that your Majeſty may long continue to reign over a proſperous and a grateful People; who, when Calamities of whatever Deſcription aſſail the State, may attain and improve the important Knowledge of ſetting a juſt Value on the many Bleſſings they enjoy under your mild and auſpicious Government.

Signed at the Appointment of the Meeting held at Hamilton, the 16th of March, 1789, by their Præſes,

The Apprehenſion that we might be deprived of the Benefit of your Majeſty's Government has impreſſed on our Minds, with redoubled Force, thoſe Sentiments of Duty, Gratitude and Affection, which the whole Courſe of your Majeſty's Conduct has been calculated to inſpire, and which we have long been accuſtomed to entertain; the Danger from which we have eſcaped gives us a quicker Senſe of our preſent Bleſſings, and we are particularly thankful, that no Interruption has been given to thoſe Meaſures which your Majeſty was purſuing with ſo much Vigour and Succeſs for the Dignity and Proſperity of your Kingdom.
